September Eleventh Families for Peaceful Tomorrows

"Wars are poor chisels for carving out peaceful tomorrows" Martin Luther King, Jr.

Dear Friends and Supporters:

September 11th Families for Peaceful Tomorrows has always believed violence should be met with nonviolence, terror should be confronted with courage, and grief could be fashioned into actions for peace. We said this in the days and months after 9-11, and we stand by our convictions today. We urge President Obama to lead our nation by following the rule of law, open the door of human dignity by closing the prison at Guantanamo Bay and honor our nation's collective loss by gaining our trust in a government of the people, and for the people, once again.

Peaceful Tomorrows member Talat Hamdani with President Obama at May 5th Ceremony in New York City.

Read our members' statements on the killing of Osama bin Laden as well as our entreaty to our President urging him to lead the nation on a path to peace.

Support our important advocacy as we lead into the 10th Anniversary of 9-11. We won't rest until we achieve Peaceful Tomorrows. Won't you donate now?
