Believe in the future!

As we approach the end of the year and prepare to celebrate our 20th birthday on February 14, 2022, we will keep on fighting for justice and nonviolence as well as being a voice educators can utilize in their classrooms to inspire a new generation.

"We need to take the lessons that we learned after 9-11 about the dangers of using violence as a means of retribution and provide meaningful, alternative approaches for achieving justice." P T member and educator, Karen Shea
